

Creative Drawing and Watercolor

Instructor	Bill Stevens
Course Overview	Watercolor is presented as a fun, easy and forgiving medium. Various subject matter from still life, landscape, to self-portraits will be rendered.
Phone	770-886-5217
Email	claude4433@att.net
Cost	$150.00
Class Date/Time	Saturday: 9 am – 3 pm (bring a sack lunch) Pick One: August 4 October 20 December 15
Class Min/Max	6 / 12
Location	Brannon-Heard House 111 Pilgrim Mill Rd, Cumming Ga 30040. Second floor class rooms
Level	Beginner

Material List

- One 2B pencil
- One kneaded eraser
- One 18" x 24" Strathmore watercolor pad spiral bound
- Ten sheets 8.5" x 11" white copy paper
- One Prang watercolor set
- One #10 round watercolor brush
- One 1; or 2: wide flat watercolor brush

Bill Stevens Bio

Claude William (Bill) Stevens, an Advertising instructor, a graduate of Auburn University, is an illustrator for various publications and children's books. He has been employed in art direction-design-illustration positions with major corporate companies such as FB Goodrich, Teledyne and advertising agencies with national, international and local awards from Chicago Art Directors Club, The Birmingham Art Director's Club, Society of Technical Writers and Publishers, and C.A. (Commercial Arts) Magazine. Stevens is an instructor in drawing, illustrations and cartooning at various art centers in Atlanta.