

Rebekah Quattlebaum

Rebekah Quattlebaum of Beka's Creations is a multi-talented artist and crafter who enjoys not only exercising her creativity but helping others discover and develop their own hidden gems. She counts wood turning, paper crafting, wreath making, custom T-shirt designs, painting, and drawing among her many avenues of expression. She also has a green thumb and can tell you more about plants and gardening than the experts at local big-box stores. Rebekah and her husband Robert live in Cumming, GA and enjoy serving God and others. She is the mother of six, grandmother of three, business owner, and hobbyist. She also enjoys going to car shows and playing pinball with her husband of thirty-three years. Rebekah is excited to share her energy and creativity with you!
